

Scripture Retreat with Fr. Don Senior, C.P.

Fr. Senior, a Passionist priest, is the former President of Catholic Theological Union in Chicago where he is also Professor of New Testament Studies. His degrees in sacred scripture are from University of Louvain, Belgium.

Familiarity with the history and landscape of the Middle East has prompted a strong interest in the historical Jesus and the social and historical context of the New Testament.

A member of the Pontifical Biblical Commission he is general editor of the Catholic Study Bible and author of the four-volume The Passion of Jesus in the Gospel of Mark, Matthew, Luke, and John as well as other books and numerous articles.

For more than 30 years he has led tours throughout the Middle East sharing his knowledge of scripture and love for the land and the people.

His scholarship is at the service of the whole church. Retreatants can expect insightful and spiritual conferences that will surely deepen the place of scripture in their daily lives.

Why The Cross?

One of the most remarkable achievements of the Early Church was its ability to transform what was a feared and terrible form of capital punishment into a sign of life and redemption.

This weekend will explore the meaning of the cross in the New Testament and what it means for us today.
