All candidates will need their pastor's approval to attend the School of Lay Formation. By allowing a parishioner to participate in the School of Lay Formation you are giving them the opportunity to learn more about our Catholic faith. Faith Formation is our common goal. It is solely the Pastor's decision as to allow this person to serve in a ministerial capacity at the parish.

All candidates in the School of lay Formation receive basic formation in Catholic Studies such as Scripture, Church History, Morality, and Sacraments.
