

Imprimatur / Nihil Obstat Policy

An imprimatur is the official episcopal permission to print a Catholic book, while a nihil obstat is the preliminary approval from an appointed censor (censor librorum) stating that the work contains no doctrinal or moral errors. These two statements (decrees) can be issued by the Archbishop on request of the author for his/her publication (paper, electronic, public social media, etc.). In order to do so, a few conditions have to be met:

1. The author currently resides within the Archdiocese of Miami and is an active member of an archdiocesan parish.
2. Acceptable languages: English and Spanish.
3. The author agrees to pay in advance the fee and any additional fees later as specified:
 - a. The initial fee is $250 per publication (a title, book, presentation) paid to the “Archdiocese of Miami” in advance with request submission. This fee is nonrefundable.
 - b. Should the censor point out some theological errors to the author, which will render publication unfit for imprimatur or nihil obstat, the author has a chance to revise his/her work and resubmit to the censor. Each additional review requires $100 per title to the Archdiocese of Miami. This fee is nonrefundable.
 - c. The original process of review may take at least 6 months. If it is done sooner, we will communicate to the author immediately.
4. To start the process, the author must sign the agreement, submit 2 (two) copies of publications (paper versions preferred) and attach initial payment of $250 per title/publication, as mentioned above.

Acknowledgement of acceptance to these terms by the author. If publication has more than one author, each author signs separate Acknowledgement (this) page. However, only one Request per publication is required independent of the number of authors.
