OFFICE OF SAFE ENVIRONMENT

New Online Training Option in the Virtus Registration Process

In these extraordinary times, the Safe Environment Office has reviewed the current process of Virtus training and how it should proceed in an effort to still provide quality education of awareness and prevention of child sexual abuse and do so in a safe and logistically viable procedure.

In response we have worked with Virtus National to provide temporary online training as an option. It is available in English, Spanish and also Korean and Vietnamese subtitles.

This means the participant must have access to the internet. For those few who do not, and do not have another option, then their site—meaning parish or school—is to provide them with a computer on site for them to complete this training.

All those completing the online training option will have an active Virtus account and will be required to read their monthly bulletins just as is required with the live training. The Local Coordinator at each site will have access to all accounts affiliated with their location just as before. Compliance responsibilities will not change.

Register for online class at www.virtus.org. For questions regarding the new online training option please contact Jan Rayburn at jrayburn@theadom.org

The program helps couples that are struggling in their marriage, even those who are considering marriage separation or who are already separated or divorced. We welcome couples of ALL ages, regardless of how long they have been married, or have been in trouble. Retrouvaille has helped heal tens of thousands of marriages worldwide. The next event will be:

OFFICE OF CATECHESIS

Summer Institute

The new Directory for Catechesis identifies three key interrelated dimensions of the formation of a catechist: formation in “being a catechist” and “knowing-how to be with” others; formation in knowledge that includes biblical-theological formation and understanding of human beings and social contexts; and pedagogical and methodological formation that forms a catechist as an educator and communicator. (n. 136 – 150)

Our catechist formation courses enter deeply into those dimensions and more! We invite your catechetical leaders and catechists to take advantage of the courses being offered in Dade and Broward:
