Office of Vocations

Burse Fund Collection 2026

Dear Pastors and Parish Communities, on behalf of Archbishop Thomas Wenski, our seminarians, and everyone involved in the work of priestly formation, thank you for your generous participation in this year's Annual Seminary Burse Fund Collection. Your faithful support and continued prayers are a tremendous blessing to the men preparing for the priesthood and help make their formation possible. We are sincerely grateful for your generosity and for your ongoing commitment to fostering vocations throughout the Archdiocese of Miami.

A New Year of Priestly Formation Begins

We ask you to keep our seminarians in your prayers as they begin a new year of priestly formation. Our new seminarians have been arriving at their respective seminaries over the past weekend and throughout this week, beginning this important new chapter in their vocational journey. Please pray for all our seminarians, that the Lord may continue to strengthen their vocation, deepen their relationship with Christ, and form their hearts after the Heart of the Good Shepherd. May they respond each day with generosity, faith, and joy to the Lord's call.

St. Andrew's Discernment Gathering

Our July St. Andrew's Discernment Gathering was another true blessing, this time in the beautiful Florida Keys at St. Justin Martyr Catholic Parish in the Monroe Deanery. We were warmly welcomed by Fr. Juan Carlos Rios and the parish community, and we are deeply grateful for their generous hospitality and support of vocations to the priesthood. Our next St. Andrew's Discernment Gathering will take place in August, with the location to be announced soon. We are grateful for the continued support of our priests and encourage each priest to personally invite a young man, ages 17 to 35, from his parish who may be open to discerning a call to the priesthood. Registration is available through this form. For more information or assistance with registration, please contact the Vocations Office at 305-762-1137 or mmartinez@theadom.org.

The Archdiocesan Vocational Chalice

The Archdiocesan Vocations Chalice continues to travel from parish to parish as part of our St. Andrew's Discernment Gatherings. At each gathering, the chalice serves as a visible reminder that the work of fostering vocations belongs to the whole Church. Through its presence, we invite the faithful to join us in prayer, asking the Lord of the harvest to continue calling generous young men to discern the priesthood and to give them the courage to respond.

Vocation Awareness Weekend – Fall 2026

If you know a young man between the ages of 17 and 35 who may be discerning a call to the priesthood, please invite him to attend the upcoming Vocation Awareness Weekend at St. John Vianney College Seminary, taking place Nov. 13–15, 2026. We encourage your prayers and support in helping young men listen to the Lord's call. Registration is now open; please click here to register.

Administrative Assistant Office of Vocations at the Pastoral Center

The Office of Vocations for the Archdiocese of Miami is seeking a full-time Administrative Assistant to support the mission of promoting and fostering priestly vocations. This position provides administrative support to the Director of Vocations and assistance with the daily operations of the office.

Qualified candidates who are interested in serving the Church through this role are invited to apply. To apply, please submit a resume and cover letter addressed to the Director of Vocations, Rev. Milton Martínez, at mmartinez@theadom.org and careers@theadom.org. The subject line should read: Administrative Assistant, Office of Vocations. For more information and application details, please visit the Archdiocese of Miami employment page.

One Hail Mary a Day for Vocations

Thank you for continuing to pray #AHailMaryADay. Please continue to remember our seminarians in your daily prayers as they serve in parishes throughout the Archdiocese this summer and continue their formation for the priesthood.

Office of the Chancellor for Canonical Affairs

Information and Instructions Pertaining to the Priestly Fraternity of Saint Pius X (SSPX)

On July 1, 2026, after proper warnings and communications from the Holy See, the Priestly Fraternity of Saint Pius X (SSPX) proceeded with the ordination of bishops without the mandate of the Holy Father. The next day, the Dicastery of the Doctrine of the Faith (DDF) issued a decree and explanatory note that the actions on the part of SSPX constituted a delict of schism which has an attached penalty, namely the “latae sententiae” excommunication.

Who is Excommunicated and Who is Not?

Those who are excommunicated:

- All clergy of SSPX (bishops, priests, and deacons);
- Lay Faithful who are part of the Third Order of the SSPX;
- Lay Faithful who habitually participate in the celebrations of the SSPX, formally sharing its doctrinal positions.

Those who are not excommunicated:

- Lay Faithful who attended the Priestly Fraternity of Saint Pius X only for liturgical or spiritual reasons;
- Lay Faithful who, while aware of the tensions with the Holy See, do not reject the Magisterium or the authority of the Roman Pontiff.

Sacraments:

The Holy See also declared that the Sacraments of Marriage and Confession received through SSPX are no longer considered valid for the members of the Catholic Church.

Remedies:

The Dicastery for the Doctrine of Faith provided guidelines on receiving back those who wish to return to the Catholic Church and be freed from excommunication:

Office of the Chancellor for Canonical Affairs, continued

Information and Instructions Pertaining to SSPX), continued

Bishops: they need to contact the Holy See directly.

Priests and Deacons: need to find a willing Ordinary to accept them and follow the process designed by DDF via local diocese.

Lay Faithful excommunicated: removal of excommunication is done via Chancery.

- Lay persons seeking reunion with the Catholic Church need to find a parish at which they intend to become parishioners.
- The pastor of this parish needs to contact the Chancery (305-762-1220) to receive two documents: 1). Profession of Faith and 2). Formula of Adhesion.
- After these documents are signed and dated by the lay faithful, the documents are submitted to the Chancery for the approval of the Ordinary.
- After the approval is granted, the pastor who submitted these documents on behalf of the Lay Faithful seeking reunion with the Catholic Church, will be instructed to arrange in their parish a ceremony using the Rite of Admission to Full Communion of the Catholic Church of Those Already Validly Baptized.

Lay Faithful not excommunicated but seeking spiritual peace: It is sufficient that they present themselves to a Catholic priest in full communion with the decision not to attend SSPX in the future. It can be done via an appointment, in spiritual direction, or confession. Nothing further is required from the lay person or the priest.

Other Provisions

For those seeking an opportunity to attend Latin Mass, the Archdiocese of Miami offers the ministry of the Fraternity of Saint Peter (FSSP), which is in union with the Holy See. The Masses are celebrated in Our Lady of Belen Chapel on Sundays at 10 a.m.; and the chapel of Our Lady of Mercy Cemetery on weekdays at 7:30 a.m.

Requests for Faculties

We kindly request the cooperation of all Pastors of the Archdiocese of Miami regarding the submission of requests for faculties for visiting priests and deacons. Please remember that all requests must be submitted at least two weeks in advance. Requests received after this timeframe may not be processed in a timely or proper manner. Thank you for your collaboration.

Catholic Hospice

The Volunteer Services Department offers volunteer opportunities for individuals looking to join an organization committed to providing care to vulnerable populations. You can choose to join: Companion Care, Acts of Kindness Project, Camp Erin, We Honor Veterans, Pet Peace of Mind and more! For more information, email volunteerservices@catholichospice.org.

Office of Detention Ministry

Pastors, please consider announcing the following in your parish bulletin:

Volunteers Needed: The Office of Detention Ministry of the Archdiocese of Miami is looking for priests and lay volunteers for one of 30 correctional facilities in Miami-Dade. For more information, email Deacon Edgardo Farias at efarias@theadom.org, or <https://detentionministry.org>.

Office of Safe Environment

Safe Environment Local Coordinator

The Archdiocese of Miami's administration has reevaluated the Safe Environment Office in all aspects including the general policy, staffing and assigning of responsibilities, reporting procedures, requirements to serve as either an employee, vendor, or volunteer, and compliance procedures all in accordance with the USCCB's Charter for the Protection of Children and Vulnerable Adults.

An imperative part of ensuring compliance for our entities is the assigning of a Local Coordinator for your site. The Local Coordinator is responsible for compliance and record keeping of the Archdiocesan Creating and Maintaining Safe Environments for Children and Vulnerable Adults Policy. Essentially, this means ensuring that compliance is met and that it can be proven. (Remember the SE Office is an independently audited office.)

The role description is extensive and requires training before access is given. If your site does not have a local coordinator, please contact the Safe Environment office at jrayburn@theadom.org for the Role Description, and consider your choice carefully. Once a candidate is identified, contact the Safe Environment Office with the name and email address of the candidate to receive the appropriate training. This person must already be compliant in Virtus, fingerprinting, and a signed pledge to promote safe environment.

Ultimately, the responsibility falls to the Pastor, Principal, or Director of the site. Thank you for joining the archdiocesan efforts to protect children and vulnerable adults.

Catholic Health Services

Pastors, please consider announcing the following in your parish bulletin:

Faith-Centered Skilled Nursing Care Across the Archdiocese of Miami

When a parishioner needs skilled nursing care, choosing Catholic Health Services keeps them close to the faith that has sustained them throughout life. Our nursing centers provide excellent medical and rehabilitative care, compassionate pastoral support for residents and families, and a mission that strengthens the Church's presence in our community. Please recommend St. John's in Lauderdale Lakes, Villa Maria in North Miami, or St. Anne's in South Miami whenever possible. For more information, contact Communications Director Rose Lugo, rlugo@chsfla.com, or 954-955-7379.

Archdiocesan website

In an effort to update and maintain current information on our website, we ask parishes and schools to review their contact information on the archdiocesan website and email Maria Alejandra Rivas-Ávila at mrivas@theadom.org to request changes to your profile pages.

Pastors, please add the following announcements in your parish bulletins:

Sunday Mass for shut-ins: online, on TV and on YouTube

The greatest gift that you could give a sick or homebound person is to remind them that hearing God's word in livestreamed and recorded Masses is only a few clicks away. To watch the Mass in English or Spanish, visit miamiarch.org | Offices & Ministries | Communications | Television Mass; or watch the Spanish Masses on our YouTube channel, CatholicMiami. Mass recordings become available at 6 p.m. every Saturday through midnight Sunday, and a direct link is posted on the News Center on the home page of the archdiocesan website. Masses also are broadcast in Spanish on Univision 23 on Sundays at 6:30 a.m. Those who are homebound and would like a visit from an extraordinary minister of Communion may contact their parish office directly.

Beware of scammers

The Archdiocese of Miami has heard reports of scammers impersonating Archbishop Thomas Wenski and some of our priests on Facebook, Instagram and other social media platforms, as well as via texts and phone calls. Please be aware that no archdiocesan priest or bishop will ever contact you directly asking for money, gift cards or anything else.

If you, your friends, family, or parish staff receive a direct message from anyone impersonating Archbishop Wenski or one of our priests, please do not respond. Report the fake account immediately to the social media platform and let the archdiocesan Communications Office know by emailing mrivas@theadom.org.

Impersonator scams also should be reported to the Federal Trade Commission by calling 1-877-382-4357; or Florida's Consumer Protection Division, 1-866-966-7226. Find out more about the types of scams making the rounds at myfloridalegal.com.
