

The Archdiocese of Miami Youth Ministry Summit

Saturday, March 3, 2018

9 am - 5 pm

Monsignor Edward Pace High School

Please join us for an inspiring gathering to encourage, equip and energize your parish Youth Ministry.

- Up to five (5) delegates from each parish may attend.

- There is no cost to attend.

- The day will include Mass celebrated by Archbishop Thomas Wenski, keynote addresses, break-out sessions and parish envisioning time.

- Simultaneous translation into Spanish will be available.

See reverse for more information

It has been three years since the Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministry re-opened , and thanks to the support of our Pastors, priests, and clergy, there has been tremendous growth in our ministry to youth in the Archdiocese of Miami in that time.

BUT, this is just the beginning!
We have much more to accomplish, together!

The Youth Ministry Summit will bring us together to both celebrate what we have accomplished and to also look to the future. Archbishop Wenski will speak on his vision for the Archdiocese, and the Director of the Office of Youth & Young Adult Ministry, Rosemarie Banich, will speak to the work already done and the plan for the future. There will be other keynote addresses from some of the most recognized names in Catholic youth ministry today as well as breakout sessions and facilitated time for parish groups to work on their own vision and priorities for youth ministry.

MEET THE PRESENTERS*

Frank Mercadante, author of "Engaging a New Generation" and many other books.

Christina Lamas, Executive Director of the National Federation for Catholic Youth Ministry

Eric Gallagher, author of "Discipleship-Based Youth Ministry"

Registration is limited to a maximum of five delegates per parish, school or movement. Registration will close on February 16 @ 5:00 pm..

*Speakers subject to change pending final confirmations.