Spirit AND GRACE

Rev. Ricky Manalo, CSP, Ph.D. is a Paulist priest currently teaching at Santa Clara University and the Jesuit School of Theology (Berkeley, CA). He studied composition and piano at the Manhattan School of Music, theology at the Washington Theological Union, liturgy and culture at the Graduate Theological Union and sociology at the University of California, Berkeley.

An accomplished liturgical musician, his music can be found in Catholic and Protestant hymnals alike as well as in numerous collections from OCP including This Holy Light and On This Day. His newest collection, Spirit and Grace features his multi-cultural Mass Setting by the same name. Rev. Ricky Manalo brings his wealth of knowledge and musical talent with him to many parishes and communities around the world where he conducts workshops and other pastoral events.
