

Priest Winter Institute

JAN. 29- FEB. 3, 2023

The Prophets: Preaching the Ancient Preachers

Presenter: David G. Monaco, C.P.

Each year St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary offers a study week for priests. The Institute provides parish priests a week of inspiring presentations, intellectual stimulation and time for prayerful recollection – all in a pleasant and naturally peaceful environment. Enjoy a well-earned change of pace. Take advantage of our 70 acres in which to be renewed: St. Vincent's and St. Mary's Chapels for liturgies and prayer, the St. Joseph Community Center (lounge, weight room, TV room, etc.), the beautiful pool and deck, newly renovated rooms with private baths, and simply the enjoyment of fraternal sharing. Meals are exceptional, prepared by our own chef and his very dedicated staff.

Guest rooms will be available after 5:30 p.m. on Sunday, January 29. A 7:30 p.m. social is planned to welcome participants that evening. The first conference begins Monday, January 30 at 9:00 am (following Morning Prayer at 8:45 am). The week closes after lunch on Friday, February 3, 2023.

David G. Monaco, C.P.

is a Passionist priest and Scripture scholar. He is Professor of Sacred Scripture at St. Joseph's Seminary in Yonkers, New York, now in his fifth year. Prior to that, he was Professor of Sacred Scripture at the Pontifical College Josephinum in Columbus, Ohio for seven years. He holds an S.S.L. from the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome, Italy and a Ph.D. in Biblical Studies from the University of Chicago. He has authored a book, a number of different articles, and two biblical commentaries, "Haggai" in The Paulist Biblical Commentary and "Ezra-Nehemiah" in The Jerome Biblical Commentary for the Twenty-First Century, and is presently working on a second book.

Father Monaco will share valuable knowledge about how the prophets preached and proclaimed in their own times, and how they were later preached and proclaimed particularly in the New Testament and among the earliest Christians.
